the Country club Tuesday ovening, when about 200 members and their friends sat down to a sumptuous luncheon at 11 o'clock. The cabaret singers who entertained during the supper bours, by walking around among the guests, and singing the newest and most popular songs, made a decided hit. This form of entertainment was introduced at the Country club Christman night by Mr. and Mrs. Mosher Copietzer, when they entertained about fifty guests at a dinner dance. The entertainment was so popular that the entertainment committee decided to have them for New Year's eve.

'I'd rather Tango than eat." seemed to be the popular verdict, and these who did not know how, proceeded to learn. St. Louis society was said to be rent asunder by the Tango; not so with Omaha society, for everyone is doing it. "I never danced so much in all my life," said one young matron at the Country club. "Even after they had donned their wraps and were waiting for their motor cars, they danced while the car was being called. I saw more different varieties of the Tango all at one time than the famous fifty-seven. Every number on the program was a serial story, because when the music stopped everybody just stood still and applauded, and would not budge until they got an encore. The only way the musicians could get an intermission was to get up and leave the hall and stay away until they were ready for another whirl."

One of the larger affairs for the school set was the dancing party given New Year's night, by Mrs. William Callaban honor of her granddaughter, Miss Charlotte Callahan. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. DeForest Richards and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze. The guests Debut of Miss Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Chase entertained delightfully at a large New Year's reception in honor of their daughter, Miss Carmelita Chase. The rooms were beautifully decorated with holiday greens, wreaths of holly and mistletoe, and the red berries of the pepper tree, sent by Colonel E. E. Edwards, father of Mrs.

The dining room was decorated with red roses and in the large flying room was a profusion of flowers sent by the friends of Miss Chase, pink blossoms predominating. The receiving hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock and from 5 to 7 o'clock. Government Says it Will Assist if it was dynamited.

The question of elevation charges or grain at Missouri river points is again giving the railroads some concern, but they all hope for a solution of the problem before the matter assumes serious proportions. Years ago the roads with Missouri river terminals were paying such elevation charges as they saw fit. Then the Interstate Commerce commission took hold of the matter and after conferring with railroad officials, it was decided than the payment of % cent per 100 pounds was reasonable and fair to both roads O'Neil is Not Ready and shippers.
